A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

LENGTHY LIST OF THE LADIES WHO INVITE CALLERS.

Order to be Observed at the White House-The Society Directory in a Condensed and Available Form - Those Who Will Not Receive.

The weather hurean has promised that it will provide clear, cold, crisp weather today for the especial benefit of those receiv-ing and making calls. While it may be somewhat disagreeable under foot yet within doors all will be warm, bright, and sociable. In accordance with the usual custom of the REPUBLICAN It presents to its resders to day an authorized list of those who will keep open house and be pleased to meet their friends and exchange the compliments of the season. From the extended list published it is safe to assert that New Year's custom of receiving is not decreasing in this city, but on the contrary appears to be growing in favor.

Preminent in Business and Popular With the Citizens Mr. E. E. Downham, the successor of the ate John B. Smoot to the mayoralty of his fortune in the west, carrying with him he subsequently invested in a mining enterprise. He looked after this ou ly for several years only to find that his experience, while becoming extensive, was also passing beyond. It means consequently he fixely drew at and went to Alaxin ria in the spring of left, while the late civil war was occupying the attention of the entire nation. He immediately consequently he manned the prince of the mines, going into partnership with Mr. Henry Green, and his stoce then, successfully prosecuted his interest under the firm name of Downham & Green. He has been active in every enterprise that, in his judgment, would tend to build up Alexandria, and assisted its people to prosperity. Up to last spring he was president of the board of aldermen in that city, which position he occupied for tan years of the sixteen in which he so abig represented his constituency of the third ward in that body. He was president of the board of aldermen in that city, which position he compiled for tan years of the sixteen in which he so abig represented his constituency of the third ward in that body. He was president of the officers committee which, in 1579, received and entertained President. Ratherford it. Haves in that city. He was also a director in the Alexandria and Fairfax Agricultural Association, of which the late Hou. John B. Sinco was president. He was a director in the German Back of that city, and is a director in each of the four building associations now is operation there. He is a man of fine personal appearance, storing integrity, sound judgment, and charitable to a fault. His election to the highest poar of honor in the gift of the Alexandria public was a triumph tion to the highest post of honor in the gift of the Alexandria public was a triumph over many applied and a difficult elitication, and a source of much grid, the friends, whom he numbers by the lexandria has made a wise letting such a man as E.

Alexandria, Va., was born in the state of
